Federal Fair Housing Law & Equal Credit Opportunity Act

Abandoned Property

Compliance with New York State Law requires the active maintenance of your Share account(s) with the credit union. Accounts that remain inactive for 3 years or more will be reported as Abandoned Property in accordance with the law. If your account is affected, you must reactivate it by October 31, 2025. Failure to do so will result in the transfer of unclaimed funds to the State Comptroller's Office-

Verification of member accounts will be conducted by the Supervisory Committee effective September 30, 2025.

It is imperative that you thoroughly scrutinize your statements and promptly notify the I AM Federal Credit Union Supervisory Committee at PO Box 151, New York, NY 10018 of any inconsistencies found.

FRAUD ALERT

Stay vigilant and informed. Regularly monitor your account statements and set up alerts for any unusual activity. Be cautious of unsolicited communications asking for personal information, and always verify the source before responding. Use strong, unique passwords for your accounts and update them regularly. Additionally, enable two-factor authentication wherever possible for an extra layer of security. If you notice any suspicious activity, report it to your financial institution immediately. Staying proactive and informed can significantly reduce the risk of falling victim to fraud.
